Green light for new homes and hotel

TWO controversial planning applications affecting Honiton have been given the go ahead, after East Devon District Council bosses approved developers' proposals.

Work is now set to begin on a 300-home housing development on land west of Hayne Lane beyond the Heathfield estate, and on a Premier Inn hotel to replace the existing Turk's Head Lodge.

Following inspections of both sites on Friday morning, members of the council's planning inspections committee gave the green light for developers to proceed with the plans, even after Honiton councillors and residents had raised strong objections to both applications.

by Jack Dixon

jack@pemedial.co.uk

While some members of the committee were opposed in principle to the Hayne Lane development, councillors were concerned by the need to satisfy the town's housing supply and could not find strong enough grounds on which to refuse the application.

Over a lengthy application process, residents have persistently objected to numerous aspects of the proposed development on sustainability grounds.

Of particular concern is the distance of the site from the town centre – around 1.2 miles – and the impact this could have on residents' access to key facilities such as schools, the train station and the doctors' surgery.

Responding to the decision, East Devon District Council ward member for Honiton, Mike Allen, said the people of Honiton and Gittisham had been "betrayed".

He said: "I am sad to say, despite the clear wish of virtually all inspections committee members, the Hayne Lane development was approved for 300 houses.

"I did point out that Honiton was only 53 houses short of the proposed growth to 2016 already, and that this will be overdevelopment.

"So now we have a universally opposed development in a single-track country road and a one-track narrow pinch-point which is about two kilometres from an overloaded GP surgery and primary school – so much for sustainability.

"Honiton needs facilities not more houses. If we are not careful the waiting lists for the doctor's surgery will extend to weeks and to get into schools here will become a bus journey away."

Councillor Susie Bond, EDDC ward member for Feniton and Buckereil, said the development was "completely unviable" and the idea that parents and children could walk to school from the proposed site was "ridiculous".

There is also concern that both the Hayne Lane and Premier Inn developments will cause major congestion problems around the Heathfield industrial estate and the Turk's Head junction.

But a county highways officer, who was present at both the site visit and the committee meeting on Friday, said he was now satisfied that both proposals met requirements.

Councillor Mike Williamson, a member of the planning inspections committee, said: "The highways officer has given robust answers as to why the conditions are now acceptable. To my mind it is technically feasible and a defensible case – on balance, this is a sustainable application."

Discussing the Premier Inn application, councillors judged the design of the building to be "unattractive" but "serviceable" and were satisfied that it would not affect the privacy of neighbouring residents.

They also agreed the hotel would be "financially rewarding" for the town, providing 25 new job opportunities and a significant economic boost.

Art auction for gallery

UNDER THE HAMMER | Artworks donated by a number of renowned artists went under the hammer at the Thelma Hulbert Gallery this week to raise money for three local organisations. Forty-five works were put up for auction on Friday evening, with more than £14,000 raised for Honiton Memory Cafe, Honiton Hospital League of Friends and the gallery's own Learning Programme, which are working together to increase awareness and understanding of dementia. Chilcotts led the auction, which was well-attended by members of the community keen to support the efforts of the three organisations. Quotes of the week...

“ I AM in a bit of a dilemma. Lots of people have contacted me about the development. Over the years there has been anti-social behaviour and I'm afraid it is creeping back. The sports centre committee is 100 per cent behind the extension but it needs to be looked after now. Several concerned people have contacted me and I'm now asking you to put it in the public domain. I want a measured view'

IAN Hall, chairman of Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre in Axminster, commenting on fears that have been expressed about an increase in anti-social behaviour when the new skatepark is opened.

“ I AM sad to say, despite the clear wish of virtually all inspections committee members, the Hayne Lane development was approved for 300 houses. I did point out that Honiton was only 53 houses short of the proposed growth to 2016 already, and that this will be overdevelopment. Honiton needs facilities not more houses. If we are not careful the waiting lists for the doctor's surgery will extend to weeks and to get into schools here will become a bus journey away'

DISTRICT councillor Mike Allen responding to the decision by East Devon planners to approve 300 houses in Hayne Lane, Honiton.

“ PARENTING is a life-changing time and we know that families are more mobile now and tend not to be living close to a small network of friends and relatives. The centre provides that network and helps people to socialise with others - it can normalise things as a parent. We are very well supported by Devon County Council in general and they have always been pro-children's centres - some counties have already wiped their centres. But the proposals will mean a change in services and what families are able to access, and centres could be identified for closure so that front line staff can be kept'

MANDY Lane, Operational Lead at Sidmouth Children's Centre, commenting on fears that the centre may be closed by Devon County Council.

Vikings do double over Budleigh

AFTER Sidmouth Town beat neighbours Budleigh Salterton 1-0, the question being asked at Manstone Road is when The Vikings last did the double over neighbours Budleigh Salterton?

The first-half ended goal less with the Vikings kicking against a fierce wind. But they were reduced to 10 men for the last half-hour when Andy Isaacs was shown a straight red card for a verbal offence directed at the referee.

Despite the numerical disadvantage Sidmouth grabbed the winning goal when substitutes Nathan Brace and Rikki Pitter combined with the latter smashing the ball home in the 88th minute.

Sidmouth manager Paddy Thomas said: "It was a scrappy game won by a classy goal that made me proud to be in charge of these players. There were some tired bodies in that changing room as everyone gave everything for the cause.

TWO goals just before half-time cost Seaton Town dearly as they went down 2-1 in their Devon & Exeter League Premier Division clash at Thorverton on Saturday.

"We had a shocking spell where we just switched off. Prior to that we were just beginning to get on top but were hit on the break," said Seaton manager Keith Somers.

The Seasiders pulled one back on the hour when Adam Kana-ah's 35-yard free-kick deceived the home keeper and drifted over his head and into the net.

Plans to deal with skatepark issues

DESPITE growing public concerns, every effort is being made to minimise anti-social behaviour at the proposed £160,000 skatepark project at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre in Axminster.

Plans have been drawn up to replace the current skatepark at Cloakham with a brand new, state-of-the-art facility revealed in February when the Mayor, Councillor Jeremy Walden, said the project was a sign that "Axminster is going places".

But concerns have been raised since in letters to this newspaper and Cloakham Lawn about the possibility of increased anti-social behaviour.

Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre chairman Ian Hall said he had been forced to raise the matter publicly because of the sheer number of people who had approached him.

Mr Hall stressed that he was very much in favour of the project as long as the site was looked after.

He said: "I am in a bit of a dilemma. Lots of people have contacted me about the development. Over the years there has been anti-social behaviour and I'm afraid it is creeping back."

When meeting Pulman's View at the skatepark, he pointed to litter strewn around, offensive graffiti and scorch marks after somebody apparently attempted to set a ramp on fire.

There have also been claims that illegal drugs are being used at the site, with some of the graffiti actually encouraging the use of such drugs.

Mr Hall said: "Several concerned people have contacted me and I'm now asking you to put it in the public domain. I want a measured view."

Councillor Andrew Moulding is a leading member of Axminster Skatepark Steering Group, and also president of Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre.

He said: "The concept of the new park is totally different from a design and construction point of view." He explained that the features will be made of pre-cast concrete, which was near impossible to vandalise.

He also said the facility is likely to be equipped with CCTV and that a weekly litter pick rota would be put in place.

From the editor's chair More to skittles than beer

WHEN I worked in London my posh media friends occasionally asked me what we got up to during the dark winter nights living in the country. When I told them that skittles was pretty popular, this usually prompted a "how quaint" sarcastic reply.

I started playing skittles at 17, before I was old enough to drink. The first team I played for was called "The Psychedelic Ravers". Most of those I played with are still my mates.

And whilst it has been many years since I played regularly I still enjoy a game of skittles. In fact, every year I organise a Christmas Eve skittles lunch which is now very much a family tradition which children look forward to when they are home for Christmas.

Whilst I have never played in any of the East Devon leagues, I have entered a few summer cups with a team from the firm. My wife Jackie and I have also presented the trophies at a number of skittles league presentation nights in Axminster down the years and I still turn out every year to cover these events in the Guildhall.

I first did so 47 years ago which was the first time that Les Ellis organised the Axminster finals night.

Les usually calls me a week before the event and I know exactly what he wants. "You will be there, Philip, won't you? Of course I will Les." How could I say no.

Incredibly, Les is still organising the finals night and on Friday I turned up on time, 10 pm, which is pretty well past my bed time these days.

Les always sits me down for a drink with the committee. But my past experience tells me to decline such hospitality. "Just a small one" is not a sentence that Les recognises and there have been times when I have had to get a taxi home.

Skittles in the Axe Valley is still a popular pastime, despite the decline in alleys. The Axminster league has around 90 men and women's teams and the finals night is as raucous and popular as ever.

It gives me the chance to say hello to some friendly faces that I see too rarely these days, and shake hands with characters and veteran skittlers such as Les Summers, who must have a shed full of cups and plaques from all the tournaments he has won down the years.

Skittles? They don't know what they're missing in Docklands.

COLYTON

Library to be volunteer led

COLYTON Library users will have a chance to grill decision makers about proposed service cuts during a two-hour drop-in consultation on Thursday, May 1st.

Following the Devon County Council (DCC) announcement that its library service must cut its budget by £1.5million, senior officers and elected councillors will be at a consultation road show at Colyton Library from 2pm-4pm.

As part of the proposal, Colyton Library would effectively become a second-tier, volunteer-led facility - if a way can be found.

At the time of the announcement, Friends of Colyton Library chairman Jane Dauncey said: "Devon County Council don't want to close any libraries. We have got to look carefully at solutions to these problems."

"We will be working with the community and county council to find the best solution."

The friends are working closely with the Feoffees and other interested parties who came forward after an appeal for members with relevant experience.

As opposed to Axminster Library supporters, the Colyton group has accepted that things will change.

Colyton Library already has volunteers who run the facility for two and a half hours a week, but Jane stressed the importance of having a professional librarian and being part of the county library service.

She said: "The volunteer experience has been positive, but has also shown us how important it is to be part of the library service."

"We can't do this on our own, we need a librarian as well."

The drop-in session will be attended by senior officers and elected county councillors.

SEATON

Freedom honour for Barbara BEM

SEATON's top honour has been bestowed on one of the town's most respected community workers.

Having already received the British Empire Medal for her services to the town, former mayor Barnara Dearden Potter has also been granted Honorary Freedom of Seaton.

She is only the second person to be honoured in this way - the other being museum curator and local historian Ted Gosling.

Seaton Town Council held a civic reception on Thursday of last week for Mrs Dearden Potter. Having received the BEM in the New Year's Honours List, the town council wanted to congratulate and honour her.

Councillors and Mrs Dearden Potter's friends and family attended the reception, which included six former mayors.

County councillor Jim Knight congratulated Mrs Dearden Potter and spoke fondly of the work they had undertaken together over the years, particularly on the now disbanded Seaton Phoenix.

Town Mayor Gaynor Sedgwick said it had been difficult to know where to start when paying tribute to Mrs Dearden Potter as she had been involved in so many groups in the town, as well serving for many years on Seaton Town Council.

HONITON

Green light for homes and hotel

TWO controversial planning applications affecting Honiton have been given the go ahead, after East Devon District Council bosses approved developers' proposals.

Work is now set to begin on a 300-home housing development on land west of Hayne Lane beyond the Heathfield estate, and on a Premier Inn hotel to replace the existing Turk's Head Lodge.

Following inspections of both sites on Friday morning, members of the council's planning inspections committee gave the green light for developers to proceed with the plans, even after Honiton councillors and residents had raised strong objections to both applications.

SIDMOUTH

Children centre to close?

SIDMOUTH Children's Centres could face closure as Devon County Council continues to make cost-cutting measures.

The town's youth centre is already under review with changes at the library also proposed, and the Sure Start centre has now been added to the list of public services highlighted for cutbacks.

The centre currently provides early childhood services for families during pregnancy, birth and in the early years of a child's life up to the age of five.

Action for Children, which runs the centre on behalf of the council, also provides advice and guidance for parents about how to access additional services.

But following a public consultation lasting until June, the county authority could decide to close the centre and gear services towards those most in need.

Hope for youth centre future?

by Jack Dixon

HOPES of reviving Honiton's threatened youth centre received an important boost this week, after Honiton Community College confirmed it was looking into the possibility of making a bid for the building.

Devon County Council is proposing to cut funding for youth services across the county, and Honiton's centre looks set to be closed.

But interest from the college, which used to own the building, has renewed the possibility that some services could be retained in the future.

And college bosses are now looking to discuss a possible bid with other organisations.

Gary Wills, Director of Finance at Honiton Community College, said: "There are several irons in the fire and several organisations have expressed an interest in sharing the building with us. We would welcome discussions with any other organisations that would have an interest in using the building.

He added: "We would be extremely disappointed to see the youth centre lost to the community and, while we cannot solely afford to take on the running of the building, we think there is a possibility that with the commitment and partnership with several other organisations the building could be saved as a community asset.

"It makes sense that the youth centre building does come under our facilities umbrella (as it used to) as we have the ability to run the building effectively and efficiently as we do with the rest of the college."

Following the proposal consultation, Honiton Town Council expressed its concerns about services being run by volunteers, and councillors are currently investigating options for funding youth services at the centre.

A petition, led by students from Honiton Community College, and backed by town councillors Gary Elliot and Caroline Kolek, gathered 600 signatures earlier this month.

Councillor Kolek said: "As a town council we would want to look at every possible option for running some sort of service.

"It is really important that facilities continue to be provided for young people in Honiton."

Big turnout for EU hustings

IT WAS a full house in Honiton's Methodist Hall, when five EU parliament hopefuls fished for votes, writes ANDERS LARSSON.

Formally named the Euro Hustings, the event on Friday (April 25th) was organised by Honiton Senior Voice (HSV).

Five election candidates for the South West constituency — Kay Barnard (Liberal Democrats), Georgina Butler (Conservatives), Tony McIntyre (UKIP), Emily McIvor (Green Party) and Clare Moody (Labour) — had accepted an invitation to attend.

HSV had billed the event as its "most ambitious exercise in democracy" ever, and there was a clear demand for the showpiece.

Organisers had prepared about 50 seats in the hall, which were quickly snapped up. Another 20 or so were hastily arranged but some latecomers still missed out and had to stand. Each candidate was given five minutes of "hard sell" before members of the public put questions to them.

Nurse Jean toasts her retirement

A COMMITTED and long-serving member of the nursing team at Honiton Hospital was celebrating her retirement this week, 36 years to the day after her medical career began.

Jean Herniman, who has been a ward sister at the hospital for the last 12 years, toasted her retirement with friends and family at The Otter Inn, following a career which included periods in Hong Kong and various other locations with the British Army.

Ms Herniman, who has been a member of the Honiton Hornets hockey team for many years, has also travelled around the world on a number of fundraising challenges for the hospital's League of Friends, including a tandem parachute jump and a trek to the Everest base camp.

Clock is ticking on business rate relief

HELPING LOCAL TRADERS COMPETE WITH THE WEB

AROUND 800 businesses across East Devon can still benefit from a scheme offering rate relief of up to £1,000 for the next two years. But time is running out to sign up to the scheme.

The initiative, adopted by East Devon District Council, is designed to give local retail businesses of a rateable value of less than £50,000 a chance to compete on a more level playing field with internet retailers.

Businesses to benefit include shops, post offices, restaurants, cafes, pubs and garden centres.

Councillor David Cox, EDDC Cabinet Member for Finance, said: "A £1,000 discount will make a huge difference to small businesses and local traders within East Devon.

"In these difficult financial times, this new scheme will provide a welcome bonus for the many excellent businesses in our district.

Councillor Ian Thomas, Cabinet Member for Economy, added: "We're keen to assist where we can and it is good we are able to give this valuable support over the next two years".

Reduction

Qualifying businesses have already been identified and the rate relief will be included in their annual bills which are currently being distributed.

This has been done so that businesses benefit from this reduction immediately, without having to wait for their application to be processed.

Businesses are being asked to confirm that they qualify and return their completed application form by the end of April.

By returning the application form, relief will automatically be awarded again in 2015/16 provided the rateable value remains below £50,000.

If the council is uncertain about the use of a property there will be an opportunity to apply for the relief afterwards.

The retail relief initiative is at the discretion of local authorities and was announced by Chancellor of the Exchequer George Osborne in his Autumn Statement last year.

Councillor Thomas added: "The Government left it up to local authorities to decide whether they wanted to take advantage of the scheme.

"I'm pleased to say that we fully support this Government initiative".

Ratepayers who occupy more than one set of premises will be entitled to relief for each of their eligible properties.

So the advice from EDDC is act now before it's too late!

Firemen called after infant gets locked-in

FIREFIGHTERS freed a child who had accidentally become locked-in a house in Mead View Road, Honiton.

They were called just before 7:30pm on Thursday, April 24th. A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "We were called to reports of a small child who had managed to lock themselves in the lounge of a property.

"Crews got to work, using small tools, to release and reunite the child with the parents."

News briefs Chimney fire callouts

TWO fire appliances from Honiton attended a chimney fire in a domestic property with a thatched roof in Buckereil in the evening of Tuesday, April 22nd.

The alarm was raised just before 7:30pm and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews acted swiftly to put the fire out to prevent any of the thatch catching alight."

"Crews used chimney gear, ladders and a hose reel jet."

● HONITON based firefighters were despatched to a chimney fire in Upottery in the early afternoon on Wednesday, April 23rd.

The alarm was raised just before 1:30pm. A spokesperson said: "Two fire appliances from Honiton were sent to a report of a chimney fire in a property."

"The chimney fire involved a wood burning stove and crews dealt with the incident using chimney gear."

Business support

THE East Devon Business Support Group welcomed several speakers from East Devon District Council to their third meeting, held at Woodhayes Farm, Honiton.

The group was given two presentations by EDDC's Planning Policy Manager dealing with the Local Plan and the Community Infrastructure Levy.

The support group was set up following the disbanding last year of the East Devon Business Forum.

Cider festival set for sellout

by Jack Dixon

ORGANISERS of Honiton's first Sausage and Cider Festival have praised the support of people in and around the town, after they reported "incredible" demand for tickets.

The festival, in aid of local charity Devon Freewheelers, will be held on May 3rd in the fields formerly known as the Old Showground, and tickets are selling out fast.

Almost all of the camping tickets have now been sold and the majority of standard entry tickets have also been snapped up.

Dave Webber, one of the Bloodbikes volunteers who has been managing ticket sales for the event, said: "The response from the local community has been absolutely incredible."

"Virtually all 300 camping tickets have now sold out and there are only a small number of adult and children's tickets remaining."

"Considering this is our first year, we have been so pleased with the take-up and we cannot wait to get the festival started."

Devon Freewheelers provides an out-of-hours, voluntary emergency service for transporting blood and medical supplies across the county, and people have shown their appreciation for the work of the Bloodbikers by getting behind the festival.

Mr Webber added: "We have had orders from as far away as London, but people in the local area in particular have supported us really well."

"With the number of people who will be there and the range of attractions and entertainment, it is without question going to be an amazing event."

Heading the bill at the festival will be West Country icons The Wurzels, supported by local heroes Sweet Black Angels and Diamondogz among many others.

As well as the musical entertainment, there will also be a range of locally produced food and cider to be sampled on the day.

Due to the likelihood of the event selling out, tickets will not be available for purchase on the day and must be booked in advance by Thursday (May 1st) from either Honiton Toy Shop, the Devon Freewheelers' unit on the Heathpark estate or online at www.honitonfestival.org

Gallery told to be more independent

HONITON'S famous Thelma Hulbert Gallery must be able to "stand on its own feet" if it is to continue to receive funding support, district councillors have warned.

The gallery, which is currently subsidised by East Devon District Council, recently presented a business plan to the council's cabinet, and has been given a period of at least a year to attract grant funding from alternative sources. The premier arts centre has been told it must reduce its reliance on local authority funding in the future as EDDC looks to spread its arts budget more evenly across the district.

Councillor John O'Leary, one of Honiton's representatives on the district authority, and a member of the council's Arts and Culture Forum, told town councillors at a recent meeting that the gallery needed to be run in a more "efficient" way.

He said: "The net expenditure for the Thelma Hulbert Gallery is £129,000 and a business plan has now been presented to cabinet which aims to reduce the gallery's reliance on local authority funding."

"The council will continue to subsidise it but it must get charities to invest in it to reduce expenditure – it needs to be more efficient in the way it runs itself."

Councillor Mike Allen, another of Honiton's representatives on EDDC, said the gallery was going through a process of transition but that the way it is funded needed addressing.

He said: "The Thelma Hulbert Gallery gets the vast majority of East Devon's funding for the arts – we have supported it for eight or nine years and it is something that really has to be addressed."

"The arts council has said it is one of the top three galleries in the country so we do not want it to go bust, but we must encourage the Thelma Hulbert to be able to stand on its own two feet."

The gallery, which was recently awarded the rose mark status as a 'quality assured' tourist attraction, will now move forward with plans to adapt into a more self-sufficient charitable trust.

Fiona Page-Turner, director of Marketing and Fundraising at the gallery, said: "Following the presentation of our business plan to EDDC, we have received approval to look at transitioning the gallery into a trust."

"This will enable us to apply for more arts funding and therefore continue to deliver and expand our high-quality exhibition and learning programme."

Praise for Honiton TIC staff

■ A HONITON councillor has praised the work of staff at the Honiton's Tourist Information Centre.

Visitor numbers were down by around 300 compared to 2012, but there were more than 500 extra visitors in the summer months.

A total of 11,382 people came through its doors last year, despite the bad weather.

Councillor Mike Allen said: "Given the atrocious weather, it is an absolute positive that the centre can get more than 10,000 people through the door."

"A lot of incredible work has been done there and I would like to thank them."

Library cuts could be 'good news' for town

PROPOSED changes to services at Honiton Library could have a positive impact and help bring more people into the town, the chairman of the library's League of Friends has said.

Smaller libraries across Devon could be closed as a result of the county council proposals, with the remaining facilities – including Honiton – converted into 'Devon Centres', and a period of public consultation is now underway.

There is concern that volunteers will be asked to take over the running of the libraries in Ottery St Mary and Colyton as the council looks to make cutbacks, but

by Jack Dixon

some are optimistic that the changes will benefit Honiton.

Janet Connors, the library's League of Friends chairman, said: "The League of Friends met with the council's area manager for libraries this week and, as I understand it, the changes will be quite good news for Honiton.

"We will not be closing or losing any services – in fact, the library will be extending services and that could boost visitor numbers."

Under the proposals, which are up for consultation until July, library space would be shared with other services, with running costs reduced at smaller libraries where communities would be asked to take on more responsibility for providing services.

Alternatives to the mobile library facilities are also to be looked at, which could see more people coming into Honiton to make use of a range of services.

Mrs Connors added: "The library already incorporates the Citizens Advice Bureau and what else is likely to come in, we just do not know at this stage.

"It is possible that opening hours could be extended or extra members of staff added to the team to accommodate the changes.

"It is unfortunate that other libraries will lose out and I would be very concerned about volunteers being asked to run services, but that will not affect Honiton Library and, on the face of it, the changes could be good news for the town."

Councillor Roger Croad, Devon County Council Cabinet Member with responsibility for libraries, said: "These proposals would see a consolidation of the service focusing on a network of enhanced Devon Centres, with resources and support to community-led initiatives.

"We know that, at their best, libraries have tremendous potential to support people of all ages to develop their skills and knowledge.

"We think these proposals represent the best opportunity to maximise the potential of libraries to support local communities in the future."

A public consultation on the proposed changes lasts until July 17th and comments can be made on Devon County Council's 'Tough Choices' web site at www.devon.gov.uk/libraryreview

Julia Neville

Remembering Juanita Maxwell – Honiton's most famous mayor

HONITON'S famous former mayor Juanita Maxwell Phillips is to be celebrated with a commemorative talk and exhibition at The Beehive on Monday, May 12th.

The talk, entitled 'One Woman and Her Vote', will be given by Dr Julia Neville, author of a recent book on Mrs Phillips called 'Viva Juanita'.

It will address new findings on Mrs Phillips' life including her meeting with Emily Pankhurst, her work at the War Office and when she championed women's causes.

Mrs Phillips' great niece, Caroline Merry de Bayer, plans to be present.

She recalls visiting her famous great aunt at Awliscombe as a child and said: "I had little idea of her achievements including being the first lady mayor in the West Country and mayor of Honiton ten times as well as active in so many spheres.

"I think she would have been impressed with The Beehive because she campaigned for better recreation and arts facilities."

Honiton mayor David Foster will open the lecture, which will be chaired by co-publisher Tony Simpson, who did research and talks on Mrs Phillips in 2009.

He said: "It is fitting the lecture is at The Beehive since Mrs Phillips fought hard to obtain Allhallows Recreation Fields and a theatre for Honiton in the 1930s when there was little money for such things.

"There are some familiar issues in the campaign for The Beehive."

The lecture begins at 2pm in the function room upstairs (there is a lift).

Marathon effort

The duo collected £2,303.60 in sponsorship, finishing in 4:12:50 to place them well up the ranks in a position of 14,680.

They smashed their original target of £2,000 with fundraisers such as ladies' pamper evenings, a raffle and a tombola.

They were thrilled with their achievement. Adele, a veteran of many tough races including the Grizzly, survived the race despite a fall at mile six, spurred on by the thought of her three sons waiting for her at the finish line.

She said: "It was such a brilliant day and we are so proud. It's something we've always wanted to do. The atmosphere was amazing and it was wonderful having our family and friends there to support us. The crowds and the noise was unimaginable!"

"We were both elated to cross the finish line in such a great time together! We said right from the start of our training that on race day we would probably run the race individually but we were still running together at 10 miles and enjoying it, so we stuck together until the end. It made the whole experience that much more special."

She added: "We're glad we were able to help The Donkey Sanctuary because they're a local charity."

Dawn Vincent from The Donkey Sanctuary said: "What a brilliant time and what a fantastic achievement!"

We're really grateful to people like Adele and Sue who put in so much time and effort to raise money for the sanctuary.

We also thank their friends, family and local businesses for getting behind their quest to raise funds for our cause.

"Their hard work means so much to us. It is what helps fund our work helping donkeys and mules in 27 countries worldwide."

As well as Sue and Adele, Theresa Harding from Essex and 'Donkey Guy' Pearse Stokes, from Ireland, ran the marathon for the Sanctuary in fantastic times of 4:54.00 and 3:08.00 respectively. Brilliant achievements all round!

Hawkwind back in Seaton for Easter

ICONIC space rock pioneers Hawkwind entertained the people of Seaton at another show-stopping 'Hawkeaster' event at the Town Hall.

Adoring fans, known as the 'Hawkwind Family', travelled from all over the world to make it to Seaton for the annual concert weekend, which saw the psychedelic rock heroes headline on both nights.

The band was supported by 12 other acts over Friday and Saturday, and Branscombe Brewery even produced some specially produced ales - 'Levitation' and 'Sonic Attack' - named after classic Hawkwind tracks.

The whole of the Gateway was used during the weekend and local artist Richard Webster got children and parents involved to help create a Hawkwind mural made of multi-coloured balloons.

TV presenter Matthew Wright, a dedicated Hawkwind fan, was also on hand to host a special charity auction and Q&A event during the weekend.

Bed and breakfasts and restaurants were booked out as fans flocked to Seaton for the event.

Organisers thanked the 40 volunteers who worked to make the weekend possible.

Early birds catch the dawn chorus

STEVE Waite, the County Bird Recorder for Devon, led an enjoyable 'Dawn Chorus Walk' on the Axe Estuary Wetlands on Saturday, April 19th.

Seventeen early risers spent a pleasant hour-and-a-half walking around Stafford Marsh and Colyford Common where still but cold conditions gave plenty of bird song.

Steve said: "Robins, blackbirds, wrens and wood pigeons were all singing from 5:30, with great tit, chiffchaff and dunnock joining them by 6am.

"Then blackcaps, greenfinch, chaffinch, reed warbler, sedge warbler, reed bunting and song thrush joined in.

"A water rail was a nice bonus calling several times from the reed bed at the north end of the Common".

Hot drinks

The human early risers were warmed by bacon butties and hot drinks at the Wetlands Information Centre after the walk, and were able to see a number of birds, including a Lesser Whitethroat, up close as they were being ringed by the Axe Estuary Ringing Group.

■ THERE was an eggstra special start to the Easter weekend when around 100 people came to the Axe Estuary Wetlands to take part in a series of egg themed activities in glorious spring sunshine.

Families explored the reserve while taking part in an Easter egg hunt with a difference, using a map to find pictures of native birds' eggs dotted around the site and using a key to identifying which bird had 'laid' each egg.

They then challenged their nature detective skills further with a nest and egg quiz.

There were also opportunities for the children to get crafty with the education rangers, and most left with beautiful leaf-print dyed eggs and a gift for the birds back home in their gardens in the form of a hanging nesting materials holder stuffed with sheep's fleece, feathers and other natural fibres.

Highlights

One of the highlights for the groups, including many of the highly competitive parents who couldn't resist joining in, was to use the equipment provided (from sticks to tea strainers) to design a launcher to throw their egg.

The egg which travelled the furthest, winning the launcher's team the prize, amazed everyone by flying over 45m before coming to a rather messy end!

After the event had finished many families decided to stay behind to enjoy their picnics and spend more time exploring the area.

■ CHARDSTOCK pupils meet Archie the armadillo

Children get up close with animals at school

PUPILS at St Andrew's Primary School, Chardstock, have been learning about animals throughout the spring term.

It all culminated when a selection of animals from Axe Valley Wildlife Park came to the school.

A school spokesperson said: "The children were able to get up close and pet Percy the python, Henrietta the tortoise, Ronnie and Reggie the rats, Merry the ferret and Archie the armadillo.

"The children were thoroughly engaged by the visit and it sparked lots of conversation."

Pupil Matthew said: "The snake sticks his tongue out to smell all the people" and his fellow pupil Oliver said: "I like stroking the rats. Their tails were all soft."

The spokesperson added: "Some of the older children drew pictures and had a go at writing the animal names.

"A big thank you to Axe Valley Wildlife Park for a great visit and a special well done to all our children for their fantastic behaviour and enthusiasm."

Congregation moves Easter service outside

■ THE Freathy and Heighway families

■ OUTSIDE the Beacon

USING the Shute Woods Armada Beacon as the symbolic tomb, 17 members from the congregations of St Giles' Church and the Baptist Church in Kilmington assembled at 7am on Easter Sunday outside the Beacon and found the "tomb" empty!

During a short informal service of prayers, readings and hymns, "Jesus Christ is Risen today" echoed down the Axe Valley.

More than 120 people attended the 9.30am family communion in St Giles' Church, led by The Reverend Anne Mills, and the village hall was packed with Baptist worshippers, led by Pastor Darrell Holmes, in sight of their new chapel being built in the field alongside.

The chapel will replace the one burnt down some five years ago and should be ready for use before Christmas.

Sunshine and pastels

■ USING the side of soft pastels, Keith Stott painted sunlight breaking through summer storm clouds and reflecting in the sea when he demonstrated to Seaton & District Art Society this month (April).

He said that for a seascape he would use a ruler for an accurate horizon and showed the usefulness of a small hand held vacuum cleaner to remove pastel if the paper becomes choked.

The May meeting will be a double surprise for members.

Lyme artist Annie Ward will attend on the second Monday of the month (instead of the first) on May 12th at Seaton Town Hall 2pm-4pm and show three dimensional uses of paper in her art.

She will show how she uses remaindered books to create bonnets and altered books as well as making a textured acrylic painting on rag paper.

New members and visitors are always welcome at the Society's demonstrations.

Fascinating tour of Exeter for RBL women

TONY Burges, an official City of Exeter Guide gave a fascinating tour of Exeter City, verbally and visually at the Axminster Women's Section, Royal British Legion's April meeting.

From Celtic origins, Roman and Anglo Saxon invasions followed by the Norman conquest, Exeter has acquired a wealth of architecture, from medieval to Tudor, Stuart and Georgian.

Even Roman baths have been discovered in recent years.

The cathedral, of course, features greatly in any tour of Exeter and members learnt that the Normans built the first small church on the site which, whilst retaining the original Norman towers, was reconfigured to incorporate wonderful flying buttresses and a much larger building, finally reaching completion in 1330.

This was mainly due to the vision of the Bishop of Branscombe, who was inspired by Salisbury Cathedral.

During WWII, Exeter, along with other cities, was badly bombed but, thankfully, apart from the Chapel of St James, the Cathedral escaped unscathed, a miracle in itself.

Its stunning exterior architecture and superb interior is a monument to the many who laboured to produce such a wonderful edifice.

Sadly St Catherine's Almshouses did not survive, but fortunately the beautiful 800-year-old guildhall has and a tour around the city today bears testament to Exeter's incredible history and fortitude.

One of the members, Jill Banfield, born in Exeter, whose ancestors ran the chain ferry, discovered fresh information about the city; for instance the Countess Wear bridge originates from a Norman Countess who built a weir to stop lighters unloading their wares at the Quays.

This in turn caused the city to build a canal to continue trading with the outside world.

Many members were so inspired by his talk that some are going to book a guided tour to learn even more than the allotted hour's talk permitted. However, the ghost tour by night may prove a step too far!

At a meeting which followed the talk, members learnt that a Lent Lunch at Tatworth Church, organised by two members, raised £100 for the RBL and the coffee morning in the church rooms a further £327.

Members were also reminded that we have been invited by Kilminster Branch to their Service of Dedication for their new standard on May, 11th together with our standard bearer. The next meeting is May 9th at the senior citizens rooms at 7.30pm when the Chairman will relate her recent trip with RBL Devon County to Battlefields of the Great War in Belgium and France.

Visitors always welcome.

Bright colours wow at flower demonstration

THIS month's demonstrator at Sidmouth Flower Arrangement Club was new to members.

Angela Hyland comes from St Austell and is a teacher as well as qualifying two-years-ago as a demonstrator.

She gave really good value by doing six designs, two of which had added extras to finish the overall picture.

To start with arrangers were treated to spring border full of garden foliage and a wonderfully colourful mixture of flowers. This was one with a smaller matching arrangement to go with it.

Constance Spry was something of a heroine for Angela because of her formative influence on the English style of floral design. Members were kept entertained with details of Mrs Spry's life and work while Angela produced a classic large white urn piece full of lilies, roses, carnations and wax flowers; quite perfect for a large country house.

In contrast they had a Japanese style trough using carefully placed contorted hazel, vivid pink azalea and sprigs of lime green acer.

This year is NAFAS Emerald Anniversary so in honour of this members were treated to an eye catching large green pot with a tall design of molucella, anthuriums and cymbidium orchids, very handsome.

An oversized cocktail glass filled with pale pink roses and cerise germinis with floating sisal was enhanced further with two extra small glasses to match it.

For a grand finale Angela used purple alium flowers in an inverted cone container along with mauve and dark red roses and carnations; not a colour combination that comes readily to mind but it really did work. The applause was very enthusiastic.

The DOLPHIN HOTEL

Beer

Fore Street, Beer, Devon. EX12 3EQ • (01297) 20068
www.dolphinhotelbeer.co.uk • dolphinhotelbeer@aol.com

ON THE 10th anniversary of taking over the Dolphin Hotel the Clinch family have unveiled an exciting new look for the family-run establishment in Beer.

The Clinches have invested a substantial six-figure sum to refurbish the Long Bar, the Lounge Bar and the Dining Room and give it a real 21st century feel.

"It has been a big investment in the future and we felt it was needed to bring it up to date," said Danny Clinch.

"Times are changing and people want different things these days and we are responding to that. We didn't just sit around and make plans for the sake of it; we listened to our customers and responded to what they were asking for."

Danny and brother Darren and their respective wives Julia and Liz are actively involved in the day-to-day running of the business while parents Jenny and Brian Clinch are also actively engaged in the business that employs 32 staff.

Customers to the Dolphin will notice some significant alterations to the lay-out of the building. The former Dining Room has been converted into the Lounge Bar, with access to a patio while the old Lounge Bar facing out onto Fore Street is now the Dining Room.

"Times are changing and people want different things these days and we are responding to that."

The Long Bar remains the same but it has been given a fresh look while the Function Room, which is ideal for weddings and big parties, is retained as before.

"We are really pleased with the way it looks and the feedback has been very positive," added Danny.

"We have been here for ten years now and have some really loyal customers so the last thing we wanted to do was break up what we had established."

With the new look comes a more comprehensive service with Danny and his team of six chefs, including head chef Klaudiusz Pakula, offering a varied menu starting with breakfast from 8.30am-12noon, lunch from mid-day to 2pm and then dinner from 6pm until 9pm.

In addition the a la carte menu has been expanded and is available in the Dining Room, Lounge Bar and Long Bar.

"On Sundays in summer we can serve between 500-600 meals and our famous carvery is very popular," said Danny.

The Dolphin has always been synonymous with live music and another exciting new development recently has been the addition of the Jurassic Folk & Acoustic session on the third Wednesday of every month and the Jurassic Jam on the first Wednesday.

Those events, held in the function room, have seen packed audiences with music fans travelling from all over east Devon and west Dorset to see some top class musicians.

"We had the Exmouth Shanty Men this week and it was packed out," said Natalie Gribble, who is the receptionist and administrator.

Last but not least the Dolphin also offers 22 en-suite bedroom, including single options and dog-friendly rooms plus on-site parking.

The Dolphin is a really happening place – so why not pop in and take a look. You won't be disappointed.

FROM Axminster Churches Together, Marion Cochrane writes that Easter was celebrated with solemnity through the Good Friday Walk of Witness, following the cross through the town and with joy on Easter Sunday, celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We look forward to observing Christian Aid week from May 12th.

We continue with the regular activities in each church represented, also with other united activities which include services in residential homes, Job Club and Plough & Share Credit Union, a collection of food for hampers and, last but not least, prayer.

The Archbishop of Canterbury has no easy task, facing the problem of falling church attendances and related issues. But he reminds us that the Church has faced many trials before and he is determined that it will survive the present situation.

The recent views of the Prime Minister about his support for our churches have, as expected, received varying reactions. The Bishop of Bradford, currently involved in changes across several local diocese there, went on record to applaud the views expressed.

The Roman Catholic Bishop of Arundel and Brighton said that the comments made would strike a chord with many. From Lancaster University, which is a leading authority on religion in modern society, came the view that it is now more common and acceptable to express views on your faith.

However the National Secular Society's president says we must understand the value of neutrality in Government, without special privileges for some. And we must applaud active consideration of the issues.

Pope Francis marked Easter by celebrating Mass at a centre for the elderly and disabled in Rome, before going on to wash, bless and kiss the feet of 12 residents in a centre for the elderly and disabled.

In Devon there were many packed churches, and in our part of the county, Easter Day started with a sunrise vigil and traditional services later.

After packed congregations for Easter, Ottery churches now revert to normal service times. The All Sorts service in the parish church on the fourth Sunday of each month is at 10.30am – with families especially welcome. On other Sundays, the main Communion service is at 9.30am.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

Coffee and Chat at 10.30 am on Tuesdays in the Methodist church and the parish church.

Looking ahead, the WATOTO children's choir from Uganda at the parish church on May 17th at 7pm, and the annual May Fair is at Cadhay on May 24th from 10am; this is an occasion for all at Ottery and area to enjoy.

For recent weeks we have heard views from church and secular leaders, probably timely for the season. In particular the Prime Minister is on record that we should be more confident about our status as a Christian country.

David Cameron has urged Britons to be more evangelical about our faith that compels us to get out there and make a difference to peoples lives.

The Prime Minister spoke about his own relationships with religion saying he had felt the healing power of the churches pastoral care.

He said that Britain should be proud of defending Christian values. In a direct reference to the recent controversy with Anglican bishops over the coalition and welfare changes, he acknowledged that church leaders sometimes disagree with government policy.

The Prime Minister has launched what seems to be a religious manifesto asking us to be more confident about our status as a Christian country.

We should recall that the present Government has done much in recent years to expand faith schools and help repair churches.

The PM has just appointed a Minister of Faith, Sayeeda Warsi, who says the Coalition is the most "pro-faith government in the world".

GINA King is the owner of the Route 66 restaurant and milkshake bar in Axminster but is fast becoming a famous face across East Devon for her unique belly dancing classes.

Mrs King, 42, owns the pair of food and drink outlets with her husband Kirk, and the couple has three children – two of whom also dance alongside her on stage from time to time.

She has been running the 'Bellygees' group in Axminster for some time, but has recently launched new classes in Bridport and Honiton, to be held at the new Beehive community centre.

● YOU moved to East Devon from Houston, Texas – what drew you to the West Country?

I WAS born in the UK but raised in Houston and I moved back in 1999 for a change of scenery. I started in Dukeswell and moved off the hill to Honiton in 2000, where I worked at various places in the town – as an entertainments manager at Woolworths and then at Dominos bistro, which is now The Holt. It was there I met my husband and partner in business Kirk.

● HOW did you first become interested in belly dancing?

I STARTED dancing at the tender age of 14 and was introduced to belly dance via the renaissance festivals in the United States – there are a vast amount of these recreational events around the country.

I learned the basics from teachers and performed for nine weeks every year at the Texas Renaissance Fair and travelled to others when I had the time in between a "real job".

When I moved back to England, I did not jump straight into teaching and performing, as there was nothing around the West Country at the time. I was also quite concerned about how it would be taken!

But my American side took over and I started teaching here first in Seaton and then at Honiton Community College.

● WHO do the classes appeal to?

I REALLY believe in the power of entertainment and performance in belly dancing – it is a strong sisterhood and is made for all shapes and sizes!

● WHAT would a typical class be like?

The Axminster class is my biggest and most well established class. My students are called my Bellygees and they come out and perform routines we learn in class. We are all ages, all sizes and all abilities and I am so proud of them and their ability to deal with whatever is thrown at them. The class attracts a regular 25 to 30 people every Tuesday night, although I have around 80 people on the books who come in and out when it suits them.

The Axminster class is for exercise and fun, whereas my new Honiton class at the Beehive is more of a back-to-basics class and an opportunity to really get down to the heart of things.

● HOW do you juggle the two jobs?

WE OWN the Route 66 restaurant and its sister milkshake bar Route 66 Express, both in Axminster, and both are still going strong and very much a part of my busy life. We do our best to balance the two but it isn't always easy!

● ARE there any events coming up where we can see you perform?

OUR next big outing will be the Axminster Show over the weekend of June 21st and 22nd. We will be located in the 'Spirit of the Community' tent and will be performing every hour on the hour for both days.

We also do hen nights, providing basic dance skills and dressing up for people to have a go.

Seaton Bowls Club

SEATON Bowls club opened the new, summer, outdoor season in style on Saturday 26th April. Many of the players were sporting the smart new uniform and the green was looking splendid after a programme of refurbishment. Members had spent hours painting the benches and rink surrounds and tidying up the gardens after the green had been refurbished.

Angie Mayhew, our president, started the game by delivering the traditional silver jack, which was presented to the club when it moved to its present site in July 1929. Unfortunately the weather didn't fully cooperate and after 16 ends the match was abandoned due to the wind and rain. But everyone retreated to the club house to warm up and continue to celebrate a really enjoyable afternoon of bowls and friendship.

On Sunday 27th April we welcomed the first Touring team of the season from the Bohemia Island Club. Again the weather was not exactly cooperative, but after a game interrupted by rain, 18 ends were completed and the visitors won by 2 shots.

Hopefully the weather will improve and all the members are looking forward to a summer full of fixtures that include two open mornings on Saturday and Sunday 10th/11th May from 10.00 to 12.00 a.m. Come along and try out this fascinating sport. It is full of strategy, skill and friendship.

Lyme Bay Cabins

Log cabin business gets extra thumbs up from Dragons' Den's Theo ▲ Theo Paphitis and Lyme Bay Cabins owner Gary Davies.

AN EMERGING Seaton business that supplies and installs log cabin kits has received further endorsement from celebrity entrepreneur Theo Paphitis.

Lyme Bay Cabins was singled out as being one 'to look out for' during the entrepreneur's Small Business Sunday (#SBS) initiative, and owner Gary Davies recently attended the winners' event at the ICC in Birmingham.

At the event Mr Paphitis outlined a number of exciting, upcoming developments which include exhibitions, investment opportunities and new sponsorship.

Gary found the day inspirational. "It was really motivating we had the chance to network with other businesses, talk to Theo's panel of experts on topics like marketing and finance, and also hear from the man himself.

"I'm thrilled that Lyme Bay Cabins has the support of a successful entrepreneur who's known for his business savvy. This accolade has really helped raise our profile - it's impossible to buy this kind of endorsement."

Since becoming an #SBS winner, Lyme Bay Cabins, which supplies and installs log cabin kits for use as home offices, garden workshops, hobby studios or kids playrooms, has experienced an increase in orders and interest.

"Theo himself expressed interest in having one of our cabins," enthused Gary. "And on the back of his endorsement we also have a number of exciting developments planned for this year, including new products which will soon be launched on our website and at the Devon County Show (22,23,24th May 2014).

To find out more, visit www.lymebaycabins.co.uk. Information on #SBS is available at www.theopaphitisbs.com

WithaGee Glass Art

The delights of fused glasswork

GILL (with a G) Hamlett discovered the delights of fused glasswork in her hometown of Seaton, East Devon and began selling her original designs in 2010.

WithaGee Glass is playful and fun, often with beach huts and boats, representing life lived at the seaside.

It is made using stained glass cut to Gill's original designs, then heated in a kiln until it melts and fuses together.

The new studio at 1 Cross Street officially opened in February 2014. Visitors can now see the Artist at Work! Commissions are welcome and tailored wedding pictures and birthday gifts are proving very popular.

Gill is a keen open water kayaker and gets much of her inspiration from the sea. Landscapes and seascapes, boats and coastal activities regularly feature in her quirky depictions of these scenes.

Kast Off Kinks at The Gateway

Two top National Theatre performances will also be screened live at the Seaton venue

THE iconic British rock band, The Kinks, are often cited as one of the most important and influential rock bands of all time, and the Kast Off Kinks will bring all the groups greatest hits to Seaton on Saturday, May 17th. The Kinks' first hit, You Really Got Me, in 1964, broke new ground with driving power chords and Dave Davies' distorted guitar sounds, and created a template for many bands to follow in a rock and roll development which led variously to heavy metal, new wave and grunge.

Later work saw the band's style change to more melodic songs, highlighting Ray Davies' lyrical and observational skills in songs like Sunny Afternoon, Dead End Street and Waterloo Sunset.

Although the band's popularity in the UK waned in the 1970s, they found new commercial success, particularly in the USA, in the late 1970s and early 1980s, and returned to the UK top 20 in 1983 with Come Dancing. The Kinks continued as a recording and gigging band until 1996, when the Davies brothers went their separate ways with solo careers.

The Kast Off Kinks formed in 1994 to keep the music playing on, and it is what the name implies – the original line-up consisted of the band that played Lola (apart from Ray and Dave) – Mick Avory, John Dalton and John Gosling – together with singer/guitarist Dave Clarke.

The current line-up is the band that played Come Dancing – Avory, Gibbons and Jim Rodford (respectively the Kinks' longest-serving drummer, keyboard player and bassist) – still with Dave Clarke covering for the Davies brothers. (As Jim is currently very busy playing with The Zombies and Argent, John Dalton often comes out of retirement to stand in for him.)

Almost every other ex-Kink has guested with The Kast Off Kinks, including Ray Davies.

Tickets are £12 in advance and £15 on the door.

FOLLOWING its smash-hit live broadcast in 2012, the National Theatre production of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time returns to cinemas, with a screening at Seaton's Gateway at The Town Hall on Friday, May 23rd.

Based on the acclaimed novel by Mark Haddon, adapted by Simon Stephens and directed by Marianne Elliott, The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time has been hailed by The Times as 'a phenomenal combination of storytelling and spectacle'. Winner of 7 Olivier Awards in 2013, including Best New Play.

Christopher, fifteen years old, has an extraordinary brain – exceptional at maths while ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. When he falls under suspicion of killing Mrs Shears' dog Wellington, he records each fact about the event in the book he is writing to solve the mystery of the murder. But his detective work, forbidden by his father, takes him on a frightening journey that upturns his world.

Tickets £12.50 in advance and £15 on the door.

ALAN Ayckbourn's A Small Family Business, a riotous exposure of entrepreneurial greed, returns to the National Theatre where it premiered in 1987.

Jack McCracken: a man of principle in a corrupt world. But not for long. Moments after taking over his father-in-law's business he's approached by a private detective armed with some compromising information. Jack's integrity fades away as he discovers his extended family to be thieves and adulterers, looting the business from their suburban homes. Rampant self-interest takes over and comic hysteria builds to a macabre climax.

National Theatre Live broadcast of A Small Family Business will be screened at The Gateway at Seaton Town Hall on Thursday, June 12th at 7pm.

Tickets £12.50 in advance and £15.00 on the door.

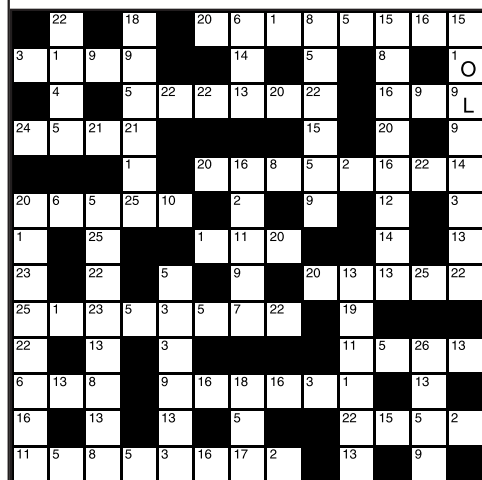

Tickets for all shows are available from the Town Hall box office on 012987 625699, and online at www.seatongateway.co.uk

Devon Baroque to return to Colyton

THE beautiful Church of St Andrew in Colyton will host the fourth visit to the town of Devon Baroque, the chamber orchestra founded fifteen years ago by the renowned violinist Margaret Fautless, on May 10th.

Since its formation in 1999, Devon Baroque has given over a hundred concerts across the south west. It has worked with international soloists such as Emma Kirkby, Michael Chance, Iestyn Davies and Sebastian Comberti, and also helps to promote young musicians at the start of their careers. Previous concerts in Colyton have featured Handel (Acis and Galatea), Vivaldi, and in 2013 a programme of cantatas and instrumental music by J.S.Bach.

Musical dynasties don't come any more distinguished than that of the Bach family, and in this concert the orchestra, directed from the harpsichord by Jonathan Watts, will explore the musical legacy Johann Sebastian left through his sons.

The family was prominent for nearly two hundred years in the musical world of Northern Europe, with over 50 known musicians. Bach's two eminent composer sons by his first wife were Wilhelm Friedemann and Carl Philipp Emanuel; the concert will include a harpsichord concerto by the former and a symphony by the latter.

With his second wife, Anna Magdalena, Bach had 13 children, of whom Johann Christoph Friedrich and Johann Christian became gifted musicians. J.C.F. will be represented by his String Sinfonia and Johann Christian by his Quintet in G major. The programme also includes the E major violin concerto, the double concerto for violin and oboe and Orchestral Suite No 2 by the great Johann Sebastian himself.

Devon Baroque comprises both London and Devon-based members: pictured are the players of the highest and lowest-sounding instruments in the string section – the American-born violinist Persephone Gibbs, the leader, who has been hailed by Time Out as 'The rising star of Baroque music', and Jan Spencer, the violone player, who has lived in Colyton for over twenty five years and plays regularly for The Sixteen, with Rachel Podger in Brecon Baroque and in many other ensembles.

The audience is invited to wine and canapés which will be served from 6.30pm and during the interval, and also to a pre-concert talk by Jonathan Watts at around 7.00pm.

Tickets £18 (students & under 18s £5) from The Little Shop, Colyton Tel: 01297 551374 or online at www.wegottickets.com/event/264266

Axe Vale Light Opera Company to perform Gilbert and Sullivan, and well known show songs

THE Axe Vale Light Opera Company (AVLOC), take to the stage once more on May 2nd at Seaton Town Hall, to perform W.S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan's 'Trial By Jury', and well know show songs, including a medley from Les Miserables.

This one off evening has something for everyone. Performing light opera since 1953, the company have regularly put on well received shows, and this year will no doubt prove to be one more fun packed event.

For one night only you can see the trial of Edwin (Andy Titley) verses Angelina (Claire Browne), and the tale of the Judge's (Richard Rodrigo) dilemma.

In the second half of the show you will be delighted by the full chorus, augmented by the second half soloists, Claire Browne, Andy Titley, Linda Hedger, Clive Park, Maggy and Dave Goodall, Ros and Richard Roderigo, Jess Titley, Hillary Watkins-Field, Clare Woodford and Michelle Hague. The soloists will be singing their way through some favorite musical show songs from My Fair Lady, Oliver and Phantom Of The Opera.

For the finale a resounding chorus of "Do You Hear The People Sing" will be performed, after which the Musical Director, Rob Preece, will invite the audience to join in the very last rousing chorus from Les Miserables.

For more information on the show, see the advert below.

INTUITIVE HEALING

A non contact alternative approach to orthodox treatments

ALL ENQUIRIES WELCOME - David Wallace - 07909 481706

therapeuticsoulutions@gmail.com

Intuitive Healing is the diagnosing and mending of our physical, emotional and sexual wellbeing from within.
An intuitive Healer will carry out this work by directing energy to the required place of discomfort allowing the patient's own self healing powers to do the actual healing. Information about the root cause of the discomfort can also be channelled giving the patient an insight as to how best to self treat their individual problems.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE*Therapeutic
SOULutions*Intuitive Healing

All of us, at some stage in our lives, have sought medical intervention be it for coughs and sneezes, broken bones or life threatening conditions. Whilst society recommends that we visit our local GP we fail to recognise that there could be an alternative to pills and potions.

In a nutshell INTUITIVE ENERGY HEALING is diagnosing and mending the physical, emotional and sexual wellbeing of the patient from within. Every living being, be it animal reptile or plant, has a life force energy field (The Aura) running through and surrounding them and it is this energy that is used in the healing process. It compliments any Western medicines and does not rely on any spiritual beliefs to provide effective non-evasive treatment. The only thing that is required is the DESIRE to get better.

An intuitive Healer will carry out this work by directing the naturally created energy to the required place of discomfort allowing the patient's own self healing powers to do the actual work. Every person already has these self healing abilities but most people have simply not used, believed in or "activated" them which is why a capable third party is required to channel their energy to the area of discomfort.

Seat Celebrates 30th Birthday of the Ibiza

▲ SEAT Ibiza FR Edition

THE Sunday just gone was exactly 30 years since the very first SEAT Ibiza rolled off the production line in SEAT's Zona Franca factory. Since that day, the Ibiza has remained SEAT's most iconic and popular car, with sales approaching five million across three decades and four generations.

The car was a game-changer for SEAT, the first designed and developed completely by the Spanish company from start to finish – with a little help from some friends. Namely, collaborations with Giorgetto Giugiaro's Italdesign design company, coachbuilder Karmann, and Porsche helped make the Ibiza a truly cutting edge small car, and the foundation of 30 years of ongoing success.

The very embodiment of the Spain of the '80s, the first SEAT Ibiza was ambitious, dynamic and ground-breaking. Its name, taken from the Mediterranean island, reinforced the exotic image given to it by virtue of its Spanish roots.

The backdrop chosen for the world premiere of the SEAT Ibiza was the prestigious Paris Motor Show in 1984, and from then on the car has gone from strength-to-strength, achieving success both in its domestic market (it has been the best-selling supermini in Spain since 2001, for example) and abroad, with almost seven of every ten produced exported; 69% of 5,000,000 total Ibiza production has been exported to more than 75 countries worldwide.

The most important markets for the Ibiza during the early years were Italy, France, Germany, United Kingdom, Portugal and Mexico, in addition to Spain.

SEAT will celebrate this resounding and continued success with the launch of a 30th Anniversary model, set to go on sale in June.1

History: the SEAT Ibiza and the Martorell production plant

SEAT ended the '80s with production and sales records, and became a member of the Volkswagen Group. Until 1993 the brand's activity had been concentrated in the Barcelona Zona Franca, but its membership of a new group, the success of its new models, and the need to increase production meant that a new industrial production complex was required. SEAT would be provided with a new modern factory next to its Technical Centre in Martorell, opened in 1991.

The second-generation Ibiza would be the first vehicle built at SEAT's new Martorell production facility. More than that, the establishment of the new factory would give rise to the creation of a suppliers' industrial estate, which at that time comprised 20 companies.

Today Martorell remains one of the most modern and flexible factories in Europe, its international standing attested to when SEAT received the 'Automotive Lean Production' award. Almost 700 Ibiza vehicles are built every day on Martorell's Line 1, employing around 1,600 people directly; all told, SEAT generates direct and indirect employment for approximately 70,000 families.

The Martorell facility is also among the most environmentally efficient in the world, not least because of the recent completion of the 'SEAT al Sol' project, which saw the Spanish company install 53,000 solar panels on the roof, capable of producing enough energy to meet one quarter of annual Leon production and reducing factory CO2 emissions by 7,000 tonnes per year.

Today the multiplying effect SEAT has on the economy is indisputable: SEAT cannot be understood without Martorell, and the Spanish car industry cannot be understood without SEAT.

The SEAT Ibiza: sporty, young-spirited and design-driven

The Ibiza is 100% SEAT, since it was the first vehicle designed and developed in its entirety by the company. Design has always formed part of the Spanish brand's DNA, and in the case of the Ibiza the four generations have borne the hallmark of distinguished names in the field of automotive design.

For the first generation of the Ibiza (1984-1993), SEAT collaborated with Italdesign, the company of world famous Italian designer Giorgetto Giugiaro, with Karmann for the development of the bodywork, and Porsche for the technology of the 'System Porsche' engines.

There was a clear aesthetic leap in the second generation (1993-2002), which again bore the hallmark of Giugiaro. The lines were rounded and aerodynamic, and the car given a level of equipment and mechanical sophistication that were in those days normally only found in cars in the segments above.

Italian designer Walter de'Silva, the current Head of Design at the Volkswagen Group, was responsible for the outline of the third-generation Ibiza (2002-2008), which took another step forward in manufacture quality, engine range and dynamic performance. Walter de'Silva introduced more attractive aesthetics, while the car's dynamic prowess took another leap forward thanks to the 'Agile Chassis' concept developed by SEAT's Technical Centre in Martorell.

New Kia Picanto Quantum

KIA'S popular city-car Picanto range has been widened with a new highly-specified special edition model – the Picanto Quantum. Forming part of Kia's 'Originals' range – a line-up of models with distinct personalities that are changed at regular intervals along the lines of a fashion collection – the Quantum is uniquely available in 3-door guise but with the choice of a manual or automatic transmission.

Powered by a 1.25-litre petrol engine, developing 84bhp at 6,000rpm and 120Nm torque at 4,000rpm, the Picanto Quantum is finished in Titanium Silver metallic paintwork with premium black cloth interior upholstery and sits alongside the existing Picanto 'White' in the 'Originals' programme.

Standard equipment includes 15-inch five-spoke alloy wheels, automatic air conditioning, a smart key entry system with engine start/stop button, electric sliding and tilting sunroof, electrically folding, adjustable and heated door mirrors with LED indicator lights, front foglights, a six-speaker audio system, body-coloured side sill mouldings and automatic headlight control with 'see-you-home' and 'welcome' lighting.

The Picanto Quantum also adds to its list of standard equipment with an 'Urban Pack' consisting of reversing sensors, LED ambient interior lighting, a premium Supervision instrument cluster and an illuminated driver's side vanity mirror. There is also UV solar windscreen glass to reduce glare and UV light in the cabin and privacy glass on the rear side windows and tailgate.

Visiting a Volkswagen Retailer this Spring will be 'Well Worth It'

FOLLOWING a record March and first quarter sales performance, Volkswagen is leading the charge into the next three months of 2014. The brand's latest advertising campaign which seeks to prove in a number of ways that Volkswagen's products are 'Well Worth It' is backed up by the availability of not only high quality and well-equipped vehicles, but also with some great value spring offers.

Special offers running from now until 30 June* include additional deposit contributions on a number of models when purchasing a new car on Solutions, Volkswagen Financial Services' personal contract plan, as well as discounts on Touareg and Phaeton.

Although the new Polo is now available to order, there are still excellent value deals on the outgoing model while stocks last. Every current generation Polo is available on Solutions with a £1,000 deposit contribution, and one year's free insurance^{AA}, and monthly repayments over three years of £135 per month* for the Polo Match Edition 1.2-litre 60 PS three-door, at 7.2 per cent APR representative.

New customers can also purchase fixed price service plans for up to four years for £15.99 per month (£25.99 for Phaeton and Touareg).

With over 20 models in its range, there's a Volkswagen to suit every need, taste and budget, and full details of all these can be found on the company's award-winning website: www.volkswagen.co.uk. Here you can not only find a car that's right for you, but also configure your perfect model, changing every detail from the engine, colour and specification and wheels to the optional extras.

Promotion still on cards for Honiton

Four-goal Fenny too strong for Fishermen

Devon & Exeter Round-up

by Collin Goodwin

THE nerves were jangling in the Division 2 promotion and title race but DOLPHIN have taken the initiative after their thrilling 3-2 victory at EXWICK VILLA which secured promotion.

The Dolphins were three up through Jimmy Lee Shaw, Ben Murby and Elliot Wells, but then had to hang on after Villa came back with a brace of Brad Cook goals.

However, they could not find an equaliser and so suffered their first home defeat this season.

Rivals HONITON TOWN suffered their first league defeat this season, losing 4-0 in midweek to WESTEXE, and followed that with a 3-1 reverse again at home to NEWTON ST CYRES with Joe Mulhall netting the consolation.

The good news for Honiton is they only need to win one of their last five to clinch promotion.

WESTEXE can do little wrong as they enjoyed a 5-2 win at LYMPSTONE, but they are too far behind in the race. Lee Woodman 3, Johnny Lacey and Rhys Parson scored for the Rovers.

COLYTON eased their relegation fears with a 3-2 victory at PINHOE, two goal Nathan Maddocks and Mike Cullum scoring, but the pins are one defeat away from the drop.

TOPSHAM TOWN and CULM UNITED were feeling incensed when their game was declared unplayable by the referee at Coronation fields. Both teams felt they could have given it a go.

Second from top NEWTOWN came through a tricky hurdle at HATHERLEIGH TOWN to keep their interest in the Premier title race alive, a late penalty from Ash Barker winning it. Dale O'Donoghue scored earlier.

TIVERTON TOWN romped to an unassailable 8-1 victory at bottom of the table CLYST VALLEY whose Premier status now looks forlorn.

FENITON continued their good run winning 4-1 against BEER ALBION with Dave O'Connor, Ben Ede, Phil Everett and James Melville scoring. James Melville had the Fishermen's goal.

SEATON TOWN scored their first goal for three weeks, since they drew 2-2 with THORVERTON, but this time lost 2-1 to the Thors, while HEAVITREE UNITED also lost 2-1 to the UNIVER-SITY who were playing their first game on return from their Easter break.

A gallant NEWTON POPPLEFORD ended their season in Division One pointless, losing 7-2 to WITHERIDGE, but all their opponents agreed the Popples are easily the most sporting team in the league. Lee Radford 4, James Philip 2 and Stuart Bolt were the Witheridge marksmen.

Champions ELMORE won 2-0 at TIPTON ST JOHN, Kevin Mills and Adam Westbrook scoring, and Saints drop behind CULLOMPTON RANGERS on goal difference after they beat EAST BUDLEIGH 2-1. Jack Towill and Jamie Cottrell scored for Rangers.

WELLINGTON TOWN stormed to a 7-0 win against the UNIVERSITY and that means SIDBURY UNITED who were without a match are certain to finish in the top three.

CHULMLEIGH with a 1-0 win at WOODBURY, and the UNIVERSITY with a 1-0 win at HEMYOCK are up to second and third respectively, but they can still be overtaken by NEWTOWN who have two matches remaining.

Hemyock's defeat drops them out of contention along with SIDMOUTH.

CHERITON FITZPAINE completed the double over Division Four leaders EXMOUTH TOWN winning 2-0, Mike Back and Daryl Pidgeon scoring, and have left the promotion race wide open.

NEWTOWN shocked AXMOUTH 2-1, four teamer Adam Smith scoring two terrific goals.

Division Five leaders LAPFORD won their huge derby game against MORCHARD BISHOP 8-2 with a Dom Stapleton hat-trick and a Mark Tracer brace dominating.

OTTERTON beat AMORY GREEN ROVERS 6-0 Si Tuley scoring twice, and stay joint top with UPLOWMAN ATHLETIC after they won 4-0 against PRIDRY with Dan Horler scoring twice. Both teams still need a point for promotion.

KENTISBEARE clinched promotion from Division Seven after winning 3-1 against neighbours BRADINCH, and in Division 8 HEMYOCK are up after they won 4-2 at BICKLEIGH.

Neighbours LANGDON & DAWLISH UNITED face each other today in the semi-finals of the Football Express cup at Generals Lane, Starcross.

◆ The sad news this week is that SOUTH ZEAL have withdrawn from Division Two as they cannot field teams for the rest of the season, and their record is expunged.

Tuesday Mixed

EASTER Monday weather was sunny and warm making for a happy atmosphere to play for the annual Easter Egg Competition Greensomes Stableford.

Club Captain Ron Graham partnered Lady Captain Elizabeth in the competition and then checked the cards with Lady Captain Elizabeth presenting the prizes.

In first place with 42 pts were Jackie and Allan Seager, in 2nd place were Penny Blackburn and Terry Dimond with 41 pts. Heather and Peter Clarke were 3rd scoring 38 pts.

Two 2's were carded - Jackie and Allan on the 2nd hole and Penny and Terry on the 4th.

Ladies Section

ONLY five pairs, plus one marker battled through the wind, rain and intermittent fog on Wednesday to complete this week's Foursomes Stableford, and though the weather did everything it could to hinder them, Sue Ritchie and Gill Johnson managed a very respectable 32 points to win 1st place.

They will go forward to represent the Club in the Killard Leavy Final to be held at Honiton in September. Heather Clarke and Joan Smith were 2nd with 26 points.

Senior Section

QUITE a few of the usual suspects picked up prizes in the Seniors Stableford, but it was good to see just a couple of new names on the winners' board.

Those teeing off early had play affected by heavy dew and as the greens are still recovering from hollow tining, conditions were not ideal for high scoring.

The best score of the day was a 39 from Eric Short in Division One. John Fleetwood made 37 but Jim Wallis, Vic Wood and Malcolm Matthews were separated only on countback, all with 36 points. Division Two was won by Rob Sexton with a 37, Phil Faulkner was runner-up with 35.

The three other prize winners were David Lavender, Howard Pritchard and Brian Hoepelma who all scored 34 points.

Sophie breaks Course Record

SOPHIE Keech (17) dominated the U21s Faldo Series in Pyle & Kenfig last week carding fantastic scores of 69,72,73.

On the first day, in windy conditions, Sophie hit the ball solidly from tee to green with excellent putting with one eagle and four birdies breaking the course record off Trish Johnson as she shot -5.

The second day weather was calmer and Sophie held her nerve and extended her lead to score -2 for a total -7.

The Third and final day started off wet and windy Sophie started off with two birdies in the first three holes and par golf through the remaining front nine, she dropped shots at 10 and 11 but her determination enabled her to grind out a birdie on the 18th to shoot -1 for an overall total of -8 to win The Faldo Title by nine shots.

Sophie who has won all the qualifying competitions for the fourth consecutive year for the Faldo Grand Final which is held in The Greenbrier West Virginia in America.

Returning home to east Devon Sophie received a letter from England saying she has been selected to play in The England Nations Cup Team which starts on her 18th Birthday at Fairhaven.

KILMINGTON KANTER

THE third running of the Kilmington Kanter took place on Good Friday with a total of 107 runners taking part.

The race was won by Tom Merson of Exmouth Harriers, beating his own previous course record with a fantastic time of 38:36.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

by Dave Mutter

WINSTON'S in Seaton was the place to be last Friday evening as AVR once again gave charity donations to mostly local organisations that helped put on this year's Grizzly run.

A superb total of £32,000 was presented to 62 disparate groups ranging from athletics clubs to preschool organisations, reading rooms and Bicton Overseas Agricultural Trust.

There were 22 marshal groups, equipment, local group's kits and costumes, while some groups passed on their donations to large charities such as Alzheimer's Society, RSPCA and the Tibet Foundation.

As a result of the latest donation, since 1997 AVR have donated £305,000 to various charity groups - a terrific total for a small running club in an area where we are fortunate to get such great help and support from many in the local community to put on an male homein 58:19, beating the women's course record at Saturday's 4th running of the 8.5 mile Haldon Heartbeat trail race at Haldon Wood.

Tim Lenton ran strongly to finish 3rd overall in a field of nearly 200 runners in 52:44, Ian Apps was 33rd, 1:03:24.

Eleanor Wood was cruising down the hill to home when her husband shouted "20metres behind". To her horror she saw out of the corner of her eye the figure Trewick 1:02:19, 4th James Sibley 1:03:55, 5th Simon d'Albertanson 1:06:26, 6th Phil Bayliss 1:08:40, 7th Eleanor Wood 1:11:21, 8th Geoff Woodward 1:13:56 =9th May and Tony Wood 1:20:27.

Five AVR's headed over to Weymouth early Sunday morning to take part in the Osprey Sprint Triathlon.

Luke Reed was 8th overall out of the 151 starters in 01:01:10. Luke completed the 300M pool swim in 5:06 the 10 mile bike ride

Winkleigh dominate

Terry Trott Two pair/Fours Competition
CLOAKHAM Lawns played host to the Annual Two pair/Fours competition - another successful event sponsored by Breakaway Leisure Holidays.

The day started with a round-robin section where pairs of players, are drawn at random play in groups of four.

After lunch there was a play-off section which reduces numbers of pairs to 32 from 48. Then the last 16 are again drawn, this produced some very tight results.

In the quarter final Beer's Unbowliwers Evan & Bev Williams came out on top against Ottery St Mary's Anne Bennett & Margaret Chant, Awliscombe's Beach Boys Lee Toleman & Brian Marshall were narrowly beaten by Winkleigh's Pinky & Perky Lorraine Axtell & Graham James.

Upottery's City Farmers David Haylor & Robert Bartlett defeated Bow's Maurice Kibby and Partner and the other quarter final saw Nomad's Young Ones Sue Cockerham & Ray Young beaten by Winkleigh pair The Blues Bros John Horsham & Bob Weaver.

The first semi-final saw Beer against Winkleigh, Lorraine's pair dominated the game and won convincingly, the other semi final saw Winkleigh defeat Upottery.

This left a final of the two Winkleigh teams against each other; this was a very tight affair with Winkleigh's Blue Bros the final winner.

During the day all points from each team are added to together and Winkleigh had the most points so they won the Terry Trott Shield.

Coastal derby double delight for gritty Sidmouth Town

Budleigh Salt 0 Sidmouth Town 1
 THE question being asked at Manstone Road is when Sidmouth Town last did the double over neighbours Budleigh Salterton?

The first-half ended goal less with the Vikings kicking against a fierce wind. But they were reduced to 10 men for the last half-hour when Andy Isaacs was shown a straight red card for a verbal offence directed at the referee.

Despite the numerical disadvantage Sidmouth grabbed the winning goal when substitutes Nathan Brace and Rikki Pitter combined with the latter smashing the ball home in the 88th minute.

Sidmouth manager Paddy Thomas said on the club's website: "We had eight players missing from the previous game so had to draft players in."

"Anthony Griffiths was due to play cricket but with their game off he made himself available which gave us solidity. Alex Raistrick played with a hamstring injury but you would never have known. Jason Stiling and Simon Hudson deserve a mention for their input and support, selflessly putting the Vikings first."

classy goal that made me proud to be in charge of these players. There were some tired bodies in that changing room as everyone gave everything for the cause.

The Vikings are due to travel to face the Exeter University students tonight followed by their final away trip to Appledore on Saturday.

Meanwhile, goals from Adam Cowlings and Ben Turner ensured Axminster Town returned from their long trip to Appledore on Easter Monday clutching a point after a 2-2 draw.

After a gruelling five games in nine days the Tigers had no game on Saturday and can rest up ahead of the visit by Budleigh Salterton on May 3rd.

Two goals just before half-time cost Seaton Town dearly as they went down 2-1 in their Devon & Exeter League Premier Division clash at Thorverton.

"We had a shocking spell where we just switched off. Prior to that we were just beginning to get on top but were hit on the break," said Seaton manager Keith Somers.

The Seaside pulled one back on the hour when Adam Kana-ah's 35-yard free-kick deceived the home keeper and drifted over his head into the net.

Over in the Perry Street League Division One goals from Laurence Gay (2) and Matt Reed put Farway United 3-0 against Uplyme at half-time. But the Swallows swooped back to grab a point with a 3-3 draw.

Finally, goals from Mark Burrough and Adam Lawson couldn't save Farway United Reserves from a 3-2 defeat at Thorncombe Reserves down in the Division Four.
